

Recommended Careers Information, Advice and Guidance Website links

We consider these websites to be useful for students and parents when researching their future careers, as well as for those currently in a job or career. All of these websites are free although some require you to register.

www.apprenticeships.org.uk

- A national website covering virtually all apprenticeship applications in the United Kingdom. You will need to register an account before you can search and apply for apprenticeships.

www.ucasprogress.com

- As well as the list of local providers we have given to you this website can assist when researching local post 16 learning opportunities. You can search by course, subject or provider.

<https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk/>

- This website contains useful careers, advice and guidance information. It supports with using on-line inventories when considering career choices and includes contact details for existing on-line help and call centres.

www.icould.com

- This website contains useful careers, advice and guidance information and is easy and fun to use. It supports with career planning and includes a range of videos and careers tools for young people.

www.stepintothenhs.nhs.uk

- There are 350 careers in the NHS. Use this website to watch videos, read case studies and learn more about the largest UK employer with over 1.3 million employees.

<https://www.businessballs.com/>

- This website can help you to boost your career through online learning and includes 1000's of quality resources covering leadership, management, personal effectiveness and much more.

<https://www.careerpilot.org.uk/>

- This website offers expert careers information and tools for 11 – 19 year olds, all in one place. You can explore Career Pilot to find out where jobs are and which courses to do.

<https://www.lmiforall.org.uk/cm2/index.html>

- This website enables you to search specific jobs to find out about current Labour Market Information (e.g. average salaries, hourly pay, and projected workforce change percentages).